

PHSS wins ICFAI University commerce quiz contest

EMN

DIMAPUR, OCTOBER 13

The 1st inter-higher secondary commerce quiz contest 2015 - Luca Pacioli memorial running trophy- was held on October 7 at ICFAI University Nagaland organized by the Department of Commerce.

HoD Commerce, Santosh Kumar, in his welcome address, pointed out the idea of the contest which is to bring commerce higher secondary students to a larger platform where they could test their talents in the area of commerce and prepare themselves accordingly to meet academic and job challenges when they go for higher studies. The trophy was named after the father of book-keeping and accounting.

At the inaugural address the Pro-Vice Chancellor of the university said "The main intention of organizing the contest was to provide a stage to the students to bring out their ability into light, help them to develop recalling capacity in the field of commerce and accountancy.

Students of Pranab Higher Secondary School with the commerce quiz trophy in ICFAI University.

Pranab Higher Secondary School bagged the trophy, while Delhi Public School secured second position followed by Ram Janaki in the third. The quiz contest was inaugurated by Pro-Vice Chancellor by lighting up the lamp. The vote of thanks was delivered by Tapashi Das Gupta.

Ten higher secondary schools around Dimapur including Delhi Public School, Pranab Vidyapith, Kendriya Vidyalaya, Public College Commerce, Patkai

Higher Secondary School, Mount Mary Higher Secondary School, St. Mary Higher Secondary School, Carmel Higher Secondary School, Ram Janaki Higher Secondary School, and Christian Higher Secondary School took part in the contest.